

SEEN ON PAGE 156

doggone handy

While Lily was busy enjoying her Turkey Pot Hold-the-Pie (page 156), we were ready for her next walk thanks to the BON TON PICK UP KIT—a leash attachment with a built-in roll of doggie “garbage” bags. $8 and up reddoghouse.com

raising the stakes

Kebabs aren't just fun to eat (though what isn't fun about food on a stick?). They're also perfect for picky eaters: Make personalized skewers from everyone's favorite ingredients. Diners will get everything they like and nothing they don't!

1 The TUBELOR TRASHCAN is neater than your average wastebasket—the glossy exterior secures (and hides) a plastic garbage bag. $41 mollaspaces.com 2 Manila is vanilla: Keep papers organized in the appropriately named CUTEST WOODGRAIN, BIRDS & FLOWERS FILEX FOLDERS EVER. $14.50 for 12 delight.com 3 This MAGNETIC DISH TOWEL knows its place—it'll stick to any metal surface! $15 for 2 tiny-living.com 4 When little ones' bathtime ends, skim the FROG POD through the water—he'll pick up a tub's worth of toys and hold them till next time! $35 fawnandforest.com 5 The STEEL FRAME DISHRACK has adjustable racks, a knife block and enough room for a sinkload of dishes. $70 simplehuman.com 6 These geometric TRIPP TINS make chic vessels for storing odds and ends. $3 each ikea.com for stores